Policies

*The dance season runs from mid-August through May. Our season ends in a recital at High Point Theatre the 3rd Saturday of May. The cost of lessons has been evenly priced over these months so that you will have a flat rate of payment each month. This means that although you may have 3 lessons in one month and 5 in another, there is no adjustment in the monthly price. Payment is due the first week of each month. There are no discounts or refunds for missed classes. Payments that are more than 30 days late will incur a $15 fee. There is a $15.00 fee on all returned checks. There is a $30 nonrefundable registration fee. Tuition may be paid by cash, check, or card. An invoice will be sent on the first of the month for you to be able to pay online if you choose. If paying by card, please pay online from your invoice.

*Parents are welcome to wait in the lobby or watch from outside but encouraged to drop students off. When dropping your child off, please walk them to the door. Parents are not allowed inside the dance room because it is distracting to your child and other students. We do have a viewing window for you to observe class from the lobby or from our full-length windows outside. If siblings or other children are waiting with you in the lobby, then it is the parents' responsibility to look after them. Dance Edge of High Point, LLC and its employees are not responsible for children not attending class.

*We encourage regular attendance, but we understand that perfect attendance is not always possible. We will try to work with you to find a time that your child can make up their missed class.

*Recital costume cost is divided into 2 payments, with the final payment due in January. There is a $26 recital fee. This fee helps pay for the rental of the theatre. Costumes will go home with students the first week in May. All fees including recital fee and tuition through and including May is due before costumes go home.
